To: The Shareholders of Eucon Holding Limited

Dear Sir / Madam

1. INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this Circular is to provide Shareholders with the rationale for, and information relating to, the Proposed Change of Name, Proposed Adoption of New Constitution and Proposed Appointment of KPMG LLP, and to seek Shareholders' approval in respect of the same at the EGM to be held at 11.00 a.m. on 25 May 2017 at Grand Mercure Roxy Hotel, Frankel Room, Level 3, 50 East Coast Road, Roxy Square, Singapore 428769.

The SGX-ST assumes no responsibility for the accuracy of any statements made, reports contained or opinions expressed in this Circular.

This Circular has been prepared solely for the purposes set out herein and may not be relied upon by any person (other than the Shareholders to whom this Circular is dispatched by the Company) or for any other purpose.

2. THE PROPOSED CHANGE OF NAME

2.1 Rationale

The Directors are proposing to change the Company's name from "Eucon Holding Limited" to "The Place Holdings Limited".

The Shareholders had in the extraordinary general meeting dated 12 October 2016 approved a diversification by the Company into the media and digital advertising business. Please see the Shareholders' circular dated 27 September 2016 for further details.

The Directors believe that the Proposed Change of Name will be beneficial to the Company by better reflecting the profile and business of the Company's business going forward.

2.2 Approvals

ACRA has given its approval for the use of the name "The Place Holdings Limited". The proposed name has been reserved till 21 June 2017.

The Proposed Change of Name is subject to Shareholders' approval and will be tabled as a special resolution at the EGM.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

Subject to Shareholders' approval and registration by ACRA, the Company shall change its name to "The Place Holdings Limited" with effect from the date of issue of the Notice of Change of Name and the name "Eucon Holding Limited" shall be substituted by "The Place Holdings Limited" wherever the former name appears in the Company's Existing Constitution. Subject to the Shareholders' approval of the Proposed Adoption of New Constitution, the name "The Place Holdings Limited" shall be reflected in the New Constitution. The Company will make an announcement when its change of name takes effect.

2.3 Existing Share Certificates

Shareholders should note that notwithstanding the Proposed Change of Name, the Company will not be recalling existing share certificates. Existing share certificates of the Company bearing the current name, that is, "Eucon Holding Limited", issued prior to the date on which the Proposed Change of Name takes effect, will continue to be prima facie evidence of legal title and no further action is required to be taken on the part of the Shareholders.

3. THE PROPOSED ADOPTION OF THE NEW CONSTITUTION

3.1 Background

The Companies (Amendment) Act 2014 (the "Amendment Act"), which was passed in Parliament on 8 October 2014 and took effect in phases on 1 July 2015 and 3 January 2016, respectively, introduced wide-ranging changes to the Companies Act. The changes are aimed at reducing the regulatory burden on companies, providing greater business flexibility and improving the corporate governance landscape in Singapore. The key changes include the introduction of a multiple proxies regime to enfranchise indirect investors and CPF investors, the simplification of the procedures for a company's use of electronic transmission to serve notices and documents on members, and the merger of the memorandum and articles of association of a company into a single document called the "constitution".

3.2 Rationale for the New Constitution

Pursuant to new section 4(13) of the Companies Act (as amended by the Amendment Act), the memorandum and articles of association of the Company that were in force immediately before 3 January 2016 are collectively deemed to constitute, and have effect as, the constitution of the Company with effect from 3 January 2016 (the "Existing Constitution").

Instead of making alterations throughout the Existing Constitution in order to update and streamline its provisions generally and to be in line with the changes to the regulatory framework, the Company is proposing to adopt a new constitution (the "New Constitution") in place of the Existing Constitution. The New Constitution will contain provisions, inter alia, that take into account the changes to the Companies Act introduced pursuant to the Amendment Act. The proposed New Constitution also contains updated provisions which are consistent with the listing rules of the SGX-ST prevailing as at the Latest Practicable Date, in compliance with Rule 730(2) of the Listing Manual of the SGX-ST (the "Listing Manual"). The New Constitution will also include provisions to address the personal data protection regime in Singapore.

The Proposed Adoption of the New Constitution is subject to Shareholders' approval and will be tabled as a special resolution at the EGM.

3.3 Summary of Principal Provisions

The following is a summary of the principal provisions of the New Constitution which are significantly different from the equivalent provisions in the Existing Constitution, or which have been included in the New Constitution as new provisions, and should be read in conjunction with the proposed New Constitution which is set out in its entirety in Appendix 1 to this Circular. Numbered articles referred to in the following summary pertain to relevant provisions of the New Constitution, unless otherwise stated.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

3.3.1 Companies Act

The following articles include provisions which are in line with the Companies Act, as amended pursuant to the Amendment Act:

- (a) Article 1 (Article 2 of the Existing Constitution). Article 1, which is the interpretation section of the New Constitution, includes the following new and/or updated provisions:
 - (i) an updated definition of “in writing” to make it clear that this expression includes any representation or reproduction of words, symbols or other information which may be displayed in a visible form, whether physical or electronic. This would facilitate, for example, a proxy instrument being in either physical or electronic form;
 - (ii) new definitions of “registered address” and “address” to make it clear that these expressions mean, in relation to any Shareholder, his physical address for the service or delivery of notices or documents personally or by post, except where otherwise expressly specified;
 - (iii) a new provision stating that the expressions “Depositor”, “Depository”, “Depository Agent” and “Depository Register” shall have the meanings ascribed to them respectively in the SFA. This follows the migration of the provisions in the Companies Act which relate to the Central Depository System to the SFA pursuant to the Amendment Act; and
 - (iv) a new provision stating that the expressions “current address”, “electronic communication” and “relevant intermediary” shall have the meanings ascribed to them respectively in the Companies Act. This follows the introduction of new provisions facilitating electronic communication and the multiple proxies regime pursuant to the Amendment Act.
- (b) Article 6(B) (No equivalent provision in the Existing Constitution). Article 6(B) is a new provision which provides that new shares may be issued for no consideration. This is in line with new section 68 of the Companies Act, which clarifies that a company having a share capital may issue shares for which no consideration is payable to the issuing company.
- (c) Article 12 (Article 11 of the Existing Constitution). Article 12, which relates to the Company’s power to alter its share capital, has new provisions which:
 - (i) empower the Company, by ordinary resolution, to convert its share capital or any class of shares from one currency to another currency. This is in line with new section 73 of the Companies Act, which sets out the procedure for such re-denominations; and
 - (ii) empower the Company, by special resolution, to convert one class of shares into another class of shares. This is in line with new section 74A of the Companies Act, which sets out the procedure for such conversions.
- (d) Article 56 (Article 51 of the Existing Constitution). Article 56, which relates to the routine business that is transacted at an Annual General Meeting, includes updates which:
 - (i) substitute the references to “accounts” and documents required to be annexed thereto with “financial statements”, and references to the “reports of the Directors and the Auditors” with “Directors’ statement and Auditor’s report”, for consistency with the updated terminology in the Companies Act; and
 - (ii) clarify the types of Directors’ remuneration which will be subject to approval by Shareholders as routine business.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

- (e) Article 64(B) (Article 59 of the Existing Constitution). Article 64(B), which relates to the method of voting at a general meeting where mandatory polling is not required, reduces thresholds for the eligibility to demand a poll to 5% (previously 10%) of the total voting rights of the members having the right to vote at the meeting, and 5% (previously 10%) of the total sum paid up on all the shares held by the members conferring a right to vote at the meeting. The reduced thresholds are in line with section 178 of the Companies Act, as amended pursuant to the Amendment Act. For the avoidance of doubt, all resolutions at general meetings shall be voted by poll (unless such requirement is waived by the SGX-ST). This is in line with Rule 730A(2) of the Listing Manual which took effect on 1 August 2015.
- (f) Articles 68, 74 and 76(A) (Articles 63, 69 and 71 of the Existing Constitution respectively). Article 68, 74 and 76(A), which relate to the voting rights of Shareholders, contain new provisions which cater to the multiple proxies regime introduced by the Amendment Act. The multiple proxies regime allows “relevant intermediaries” such as banks, capital markets services licence holders which provide custodial services for securities, and/or the Central Provident Fund Board to appoint more than two proxies to attend, speak and vote at general meetings. In particular:
- (i) article 68 provides that in the case of a Shareholder who is a “relevant intermediary” and who is represented at a general meeting by two or more proxies, each proxy shall be entitled to vote on a show of hands. This is in line with new section 181(1D) of the Companies Act;
 - (ii) article 74(A) provides that save as otherwise provided in the Companies Act, a Shareholder who is a “relevant intermediary” may appoint more than two proxies to attend, speak and vote at the same general meeting, but each proxy must be appointed to exercise the rights attached to a different share or shares held by such Shareholder, and where such Shareholder’s form of proxy appoints more than two proxies, the number and class of shares in relation to which each proxy has been appointed must be specified in the form of proxy. This is in line with new section 181(1C) of the Companies Act;
 - (iii) article 74(B) provides that the Company will be entitled and bound to reject an instrument of proxy lodged by a Depositor if he is not shown to have any shares entered against his name in the Depository Register as at 72 (previously 48) hours before the time of the relevant general meeting. Consequential changes have also been made in articles 68 and 74(B) to make it clear that the number of votes which a Depositor or his proxy can cast on a poll is the number of shares entered against his name in the Depository Register as at 72 hours before the time of the relevant general meeting. This is in line with new section 81SJ(4) of the SFA; and
 - (iv) article 76(A) provides that the cut-off time for the deposit of proxies will be 72 (previously 48) hours before the time appointed for holding the general meeting. This is in line with section 178(1)(c) of the Companies Act, as amended pursuant to the Amendment Act.
- (g) Article 96 (Article 91 of the Existing Constitution). Article 96, which relates to the filling of vacated office by a Director in default circumstances except in certain cases, omits the event of a Director attaining any applicable retirement age as an exception to a deemed re-election to office. This follows the repeal of section 153 of the Companies Act, pursuant to the Amendment Act, thereby removing the 70-year age limit for directors of public companies and subsidiaries of public companies.
- (h) Article 113 (Article 109 of the Existing Constitution). Article 113, which relates to the general powers of the Directors to manage the Company’s business, clarifies that the business and affairs of the Company is to be managed by, or under the direction of or the supervision of, the Directors. This is in line with section 157A of the Companies Act, as amended pursuant to the Amendment Act.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

- (i) Articles 141 and 142 (Articles 135 and 136 of the Existing Constitution respectively). Article 142, which relates to the sending of the Company's financial statements and related documents to Shareholders, additionally provides that such documents may, subject to the listing rules of the SGX-ST, be sent less than 14 days before the date of the general meeting with the agreement of all persons entitled to receive notices of general meetings. This is in line with new section 203(2) of the Companies Act, which provides that the requisite financial statements and other related documents may be sent less than 14 days before the date of the general meeting at which they are to be laid if all the persons entitled to receive notice of general meetings of the company so agree. Notwithstanding this proviso, the Company is currently required to comply with Rule 707(2) of the Listing Manual, which provides that an issuer must issue its annual report to shareholders and the SGX-ST at least 14 days before the date of its annual general meeting. The requirement to send these documents to debenture holders has also been removed. The references to the "financial statements" and the "Directors' statement", as appropriate, in article 122 (relating to the authentication of company documents), article 141 (relating to the presentation of the annual financial statements) and article 142, instead of "profit and loss account" and "Directors' report", are consistent with the updated terminology in the Companies Act.
- (j) Article 145 (Article 139 of the Existing Constitution). Article 145, which relates to the service of notices to Shareholders, has new provisions to facilitate the electronic transmission of notices and documents following the introduction of simplified procedures for the sending of notices and documents electronically pursuant to new section 387C of the Companies Act.

Under new section 387C of the Companies Act, notices and documents may be given, sent or served using electronic communications with the express, implied or deemed consent of the member in accordance with the constitution of the company.

There is "express consent" if a shareholder expressly agrees with the company that notices and documents may be given, sent or served on him using electronic communications. There is "deemed consent" if the constitution (a) provides for the use of electronic communications and specifies the mode of electronic communications, and (b) specifies that shareholders will be given an opportunity to elect, within a specified period of time, whether to receive electronic or physical copies of such notices and documents, and the shareholder fails to make an election within the specified period of time. There is "implied consent" if the constitution (a) provides for the use of electronic communications and specifies the mode of electronic communications, and (b) specifies that shareholders agree to receive such notices or documents by way of electronic communications and do not have a right to elect to receive physical copies of such notices and documents. Certain safeguards for the use of the deemed consent and implied consent regimes are prescribed under new regulation 89C of the Companies Regulations.

New section 387C of the Companies Act was introduced to give effect to recommendations by the Steering Committee for Review of the Companies Act to ease the rules for the use of electronic transmission and to make them less prescriptive, and these recommendations were accepted by the Ministry of Finance ("MOF"). In accepting these recommendations, the MOF noted the concerns of some shareholders who would prefer to have an option to receive physical copies of the notices and documents, notwithstanding that the company adopts the implied consent regime, and indicated that such shareholders could highlight their concerns when a company proposes amendments to its constitution to move to an implied consent regime.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

Article 145 provides that:

- (i) notices and documents may be sent to Shareholders using electronic communications either to a Shareholder's current address (which may be an email address) or by making it available on a website;
- (ii) for these purposes, a Shareholder is deemed to have agreed to receive such notice or document by way of electronic communications and shall not have a right to elect to receive a physical copy of such notice or document (this is the implied consent regime permitted under new section 387C); and
- (iii) notwithstanding sub-paragraph (ii) above, the Directors may decide to give Shareholders an opportunity to elect to opt out of receiving such notice or document by way of electronic communications, and a Shareholder is deemed to have consented to receive such notice or document by way of electronic communications if he was given such an opportunity but failed to opt out within the specified time (this is the deemed consent regime permitted under new section 387C).

Article 145 additionally provides for when service is effected in the case of notices or documents sent by electronic communications. In particular, where a notice or document is made available on a website, it is deemed served on the date on which the notice or document is first made available on the website, unless otherwise provided under the Companies Act and/or other applicable regulations or procedures. Article 145 further provides that, in the case of service on a website, the Company must give separate notice of the publication of the notice or document on that website and the manner in which the notice or document may be accessed, to Shareholders by any one or more of the following means: (1) sending such notice to them personally or through the post; (2) sending such notice to their current addresses (which may be email addresses); (3) advertisement in the daily press; (4) by way of announcement on the SGX-ST.

Regulations were introduced on 3 January 2016 under the Companies Act (as amended by the Amendment Act) to provide for safeguards for the use of electronic communications under new section 387C of the Companies Act. These safeguards, in particular, exclude notices or documents relating to rights issues and take-overs from the application of section 387C, and thus are not permitted to be transmitted by electronic means pursuant to section 387C.

Pursuant to a public consultation by the SGX-ST on (inter alia) whether listed issuers should be allowed to send notices and documents to shareholders electronically under the new regimes permitted under the Companies Act, the SGX-ST has confirmed that it is giving issuers the flexibility to decide on the most appropriate e-communication regime to adopt for their shareholder base subject to certain conditions, and that it will amend the rules in the Listing Manual pertaining to e-communication of shareholder documents (and other aspects) from 31 March 2017. For further information, please refer to the press release of the SGX-ST dated 22 March 2017 entitled SGX-listed companies can electronically transmit shareholder documents and the response to comments on consultation paper dated 22 March 2017 published by the SGX-ST entitled Listing Rules Amendments to Align with Changes to the Companies Act.

Shareholders who are supportive of the new deemed consent and implied consent regimes for electronic communications may vote in favour of the adoption of the New Constitution, which incorporates new provisions (contained in article 145) to facilitate these regimes, while Shareholders who are not supportive of the new regimes may vote against it. However, Shareholders should note that if the New Constitution is not adopted, new and/or revised provisions (other than article 145) will also not be implemented and consequently, the Company's Existing Constitution will not be in line with the Companies Act.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

- (k) Article 152 (Article 146 of the Existing Constitution). Article 152, which relates to Directors' indemnification, has been expanded to permit the Company, subject to the provisions of and so far as may be permitted by the Companies Act, to indemnify a Director against losses "to be incurred" by him in the execution of his duties. This is in line with new sections 163A and 163B of the Companies Act, which permit a company to lend, on specified terms, funds to a director for meeting expenditure incurred or to be incurred by him in defending court proceedings or regulatory investigations.

3.3.2 Listing Manual

Rule 730(2) of the Listing Manual provides that if an issuer amends its articles or other constituent documents, they must be made consistent with all the listing rules prevailing at the time of amendment. The following articles have been updated to ensure consistency with the listing rules of the SGX-ST prevailing as at the Latest Practicable Date, in compliance with Rule 730(2) of the Listing Manual:

- (a) Article 20(A) (Article 14(A) of the Existing Constitution). Article 20(A), which relates to the registration of joint holders and Depositors, clarifies that the Company shall not be bound to register more than three persons as registered holders of a share except in the case of executors or administrators or, additionally, trustees, of the estate of a deceased member. This clarification is in line with paragraph 4(d) of Appendix 2.2 of the Listing Manual.
- (b) Article 35 (Article 29 of Existing Constitution). Article 35, which relates to the Company's lien on shares, clarifies that such lien shall be restricted to unpaid calls and instalments upon the specific shares in respect of which such moneys are due and unpaid, in addition to such amount as the Company may be called upon by law to pay in respect of those shares. This clarification is in line with paragraph 3(a) of Appendix 2.2 of the Listing Manual.
- (c) Article 64 (Article 59 of the Existing Constitution). Article 64, which relates to the method of voting at general meetings, contains provisions to make it clear that, if required by the listing rules of the SGX-ST, all resolutions at general meetings shall be voted by poll (unless such requirement is waived by the SGX-ST). This is in line with Rule 730A(2) of the Listing Manual which took effect on 1 August 2015.
- (d) Articles 65 (Article 60 of the Existing Constitution). Article 65, which relates to conduct of the poll and incidental matters, makes it clear that scrutineers will be appointed, if so required by the listing rules of the SGX-ST. This is in line with Rule 730A(3) of the Listing Manual which took effect on 1 August 2015.
- (e) Articles 93 and 96 (Articles 94 and 91 of Existing Constitution respectively). Article 93, which relates to the vacation of office of a Director in certain events, additionally provides that a Director shall cease to hold office if he is disqualified from acting as a director in any jurisdiction for reasons other than on technical grounds. These changes are in line with paragraph (9)(n) of Appendix 2.2 of the Listing Manual. Consequential changes have been made to article 96, which relates to the filling of the office vacated by a retiring Director in certain default events, to provide that a retiring Director is deemed to be re-elected in certain default circumstances except, additionally, where he is disqualified from acting as a director in any jurisdiction for reasons other than on technical grounds.

3.3.3 Personal Data

In general, under the Personal Data Protection Act 2012, an organisation can only collect, use or disclose the personal data of an individual with the individual's consent, and for a reasonable purpose which the organisation has made known to the individual. Article 154 specifies, inter alia, the purposes for which the Company and/or its agents and service providers would collect, use and disclose personal data of Shareholders and their appointed proxies or representatives.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

3.3.4 Scrip Dividend Scheme

Article 133 is a new provision which allows the implementation of scrip dividend payments. Article 133 specifies, inter alia, details on how scrip dividend payments are to be implemented, and to provide the Directors the power to determine the manner in which scrip dividend payments are implemented. Article 133 also allows the implementation of a scrip dividend scheme for holders of any particular class of shares in the capital of the Company, and not only for ordinary shares.

3.3.5 General

A number of provisions in the Existing Constitution will be updated, streamlined and rationalised generally in the New Constitution (if adopted). They include the following:

- (a) Articles 19 and 21 (Articles 13 and 15 of the Existing Constitution respectively). Article 19 provides that a share certificate need only state (inter alia) the number and class of the shares, whether the shares are fully or partly paid up, and the amount (if any) unpaid on the shares. This is in line with the Companies Act which no longer requires the amount paid on the shares to be stated in the share certificate relating to those shares. Article 21, which relates to entitlement to share certificates, rationalises the timeline for despatch of share certificates after the closing date of any application for shares or (as the case may be) the lodgement of a registrable transfer of shares in physical scrip, to within 10 Market Days or such other period as may be approved by the SGX-ST.
- (b) Articles 39, 40, 41, 42, 43 and 44 (Articles 33, 34, 35 and 36 of the Existing Constitution respectively). Article 39, which relates to the form of transfer of shares, provides that this shall be in the form as approved by the SGX-ST and, additionally, in any other form acceptable to the Directors. Further, the dispensation accorded to CDP from having to sign the transfer form as transferee of the shares, is extended to a nominee of CDP. Articles 40, 41, 42, 43 and 44 relating to closure of the transfer books and Register of Members, the Directors' power to decline to register a transfer of shares in physical scrip and administrative fees for registration of probate, etc., are rationalised and updated in line with prevailing laws and regulations, where applicable.
- (c) Articles 52, 58 and 60 (Articles 47, 53 and 55 of the Existing Constitution respectively). These articles, which relate to general meetings, have been updated and rationalised. In particular, article 52 which relates to the time-frame for holding Annual General Meetings, clarifies that such meetings must be held once every calendar year and at intervals of not more than 15 months, unless otherwise permitted under the Companies Act and subject to the listing rules of SGX-ST; article 58 rationalises the selection of a chairman for a General Meeting in the event that the Chairman of the Board, the Deputy Chairman, and none of the other Directors (in that sequential order) are unable or unwilling to take the chair; and article 60, which deals with adjournment of a General Meeting, provides that where the meeting was adjourned for lack of a quorum, at the adjourned meeting any two or more members present in person or by proxy will constitute a quorum.
- (d) Articles 75 and 76 (Articles 70 and 71 of the Existing Constitution respectively). Article 75, which relates to the appointment of proxies, has provisions to facilitate the appointment of a proxy through electronic means online. In particular, it provides that a Shareholder can elect to signify his approval for the appointment of a proxy via electronic communication, through such method and in such manner as may be approved by the Directors, in lieu of the present requirement of signing, or where applicable, the affixation of the corporate Shareholder's common seal. For the purpose of accommodating the deposit by Shareholders, and receipt by the Company, of electronic proxy instructions by Shareholders who elect to use the electronic appointment process, article 76 (which relates to the deposit of proxies) has provisions which authorise the Directors to prescribe and determine the manner of receipt by the Company of the instrument appointing a proxy through digital means.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

- (e) Articles 80 (Article 75 of the Existing Constitution). Article 80, which relates to the number of Directors of the Company, provides for a minimum of two and there is no limitation on the maximum number (whereas Article 75 of the Existing Constitution sets the minimum number at two and the maximum number at nine, unless otherwise determined by a General Meeting).
- (f) Article 139 (No equivalent provision in the Existing Constitution). Article 139, extends the power to issue free shares and/or to capitalise reserves, to them to be applied for share-based incentive plans, as well as for the benefit of Directors as part of their Directors' remuneration. This will enable the Company to deliver awards of shares to participants under a share-based incentive plan for the time being of the Company, as well as enable the Company, if it so desires, to remunerate its Directors (subject to Shareholders' approval being obtained therefor) by way of Directors' fees in the form of shares, or in a combination of cash and shares.
- (g) Article 119 of the Existing Constitution. These provisions of the Existing Constitution, which relate principally to the keeping of statutory registers and minute books, are not replicated in the New Constitution as such requirements are obligatory on the part of the Company and its relevant officers, pursuant to the Companies Act and thus need not be restated in the New Constitution.

3.4 Appendices 1 and 2. The proposed New Constitution is set out in the Appendix 1 to this Circular. The Proposed Adoption of the New Constitution is subject to Shareholders' approval, and will be tabled as a special resolution at the EGM. The text of the principal provisions in the New Constitution which are significantly different from the equivalent provisions in the Existing Constitution, or which have been included in the New Constitution as new provisions, is set out in Appendix 2 to this Circular and the main differences are blacklined.

4. PROPOSED APPOINTMENT OF KPMG LLP

4.1 Background

Deloitte have been auditors of the Company since the Company's initial public offering in 2004. Deloitte were last re-appointed as auditors of the Company at the annual general meeting of the Company held on 26 April 2016 to hold office until the conclusion of the AGM of the Company held on 20 April 2017.

The Board is now proposing to undertake the Proposed Appointment of KPMG LLP to meet its audit obligations, in accordance with Rule 712 of the Listing Manual.

4.2 Rationale

The Proposed Appointment of KPMG LLP also presents an opportunity to the Company to rationalise its statutory audit costs. In connection with the foregoing, the Company invited various audit firms in Singapore to propose their audit fees and had obtained comparative fee proposals. The Board considered the fee proposals from the various audit firms, and various other factors, including the adequacy of resources, the experience of the audit firm and the audit engagement partner, the number and experience of supervisory and professional staff and the audit firm's other audit engagements and the anticipated size and complexity of the Group's operations following its diversification into the media and digital advertising business.

The Board notes that KPMG LLP meets the requirements under Rule 712(2) as it is registered with and regulated by ACRA and has passed the inspection under ACRA's Practice Monitoring Programme in 2016.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

The Board is of the view that KPMG LLP is the most cost-effective and appropriate candidate and that:

- (a) KPMG LLP would be able to meet the overall audit requirements of the Group; and
- (b) the appointment of KPMG LLP as Auditors would be in compliance with Rule 712 and 715 of the Listing Manual.

The Board thus recommends that KPMG LLP be appointed as the Auditors of the Company, to hold office until the conclusion of the next annual general meeting of the Company.

4.3 Information about KPMG LLP

KPMG LLP in Singapore is a member firm of KPMG International, an international network of member firms offering audit, tax and advisory services in 155 countries with over 162,000 partners and staff. KPMG LLP is registered with ACRA. It is one of the largest professional services firms in Singapore today, and has a wide-ranging clientele base consisting of multinational companies, private companies and public sector organisations.

The audit partner who will be in charge of the audit is Ms. Linda Tan, who is a practising member of the Institute of Singapore Chartered Accountants and a public accountant registered with ACRA. Ms Tan is an audit Partner of KPMG LLP in Singapore and has more than 17 years of experience in providing audit services to a variety of clients, including companies in the advertising, real estate, hospitality and manufacturing sectors as well as being listed on the SGX-ST.

For more information about KPMG LLP, please visit <http://www.kpmg.com/SG/EN/Pages/default.aspx>.

4.4 Opinion of the Audit Committee

The Audit Committee has, after taking into consideration the suitability of KPMG LLP and compliance with the Listing Manual, recommended the Proposed Appointment of KPMG. In particular, the Audit Committee considers that the scope of audit will not be reduced and the quality of audit will not be affected should KPMG LLP be engaged to audit the Company's accounts.

4.5 Opinion of the Directors

- (a) The Directors have taken into account the recommendation of the Audit Committee and various factors, including, inter alia, the cost savings, the adequacy of the resources and experience of Ms. Linda Tan, the audit engagement partner assigned to the audit, KPMG LLP's other audit engagements, the Group's audit requirements and the number and experience of supervisory and professional staff to be assigned to the audit.
- (b) The scope of audit services to be provided by KPMG LLP will be comparable to the services for the financial year ended 31 December 2016 that were provided by Deloitte. Subject to the approval by Shareholders at the EGM, (i) KPMG LLP will be engaged to audit the accounts of the Company and its Singapore-incorporated subsidiaries; and (ii) the relevant member firms within the international KPMG network will be auditing the Company's significant foreign-incorporated subsidiaries.
- (c) The Directors are satisfied that the Company would be in compliance with Rule 712 and Rule 715 of the Listing Manual in relation to the Proposed Appointment of KPMG. Accordingly, the Directors have recommended the Proposed Appointment of KPMG.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

4.6 Confirmation from Outgoing Auditors

In accordance with the requirements of Rule 1203(5) of the Listing Manual, Deloitte has confirmed to KPMG LLP that it is not aware of any professional reasons why KPMG LLP should not accept the appointment as Auditors.
